REGISTRATION INFO

Most program registrations are done through our website, waterburyrec.com. Here you can create an account, view our programs and pay our account balance online. Some programs may require additional information or forms to fill out.

Register for programs early! Nothing cancels a program faster than low or last minute enrollment. Registration for summer programming opens on Town Meeting Day (March 5th) at 8am.

Payments & Refunds

Payment is due when registering for a program or renting a facility, unless otherwise noted. Payments can be made via online or by check or cash at the Town Offices (ATTN: Recreation 28 N. Main St. Waterbury, Vt 05676). The Town of Waterbury does not issue refunds unless a program is canceled or a rental becomes unavailable.

NATURE CAMPS

Hiking and Fishing Camp

Date(s): June 24th - June 28th
Instructor: Waterbury Recreation Staff
Location: Crossett Brook Middle School
Grades: 4-8
Times: 8:00am - 4:00pm
Cost: $250 Resident, $275 Non-Resident

Love fishing? Love hiking? Never tried it but want to learn how? This camp is perfect for middle school-aged children who love/want to try hiking, fishing or just exploring the outdoors! Each day the camp will travel to a different location to fish and go on a hike, all while learning about our beautiful environment and the plants and animals that live in it. Some of the day trips include the Waterbury Reservoir, Stowe Pinnacal, Smugglers Notch, Lake Champlain, and more! Transportation will be provided by the Recreation Department for this camp and all trip and activity fee's are included.

Overnight Camping Outings

Date(s): July 19th & August 10th
Instructor: Waterbury Recreation Director & Staff
Location: Little River State Park
Grades: 2-7
Times: Drop-off: 6:00pm, Pick-up: 10:00am
Cost: $55 Resident, $65 Non-Resident

We are offering two overnight camping trips for kids ages 5-12 this summer! This is a perfect intro to kids who have never camped before but want to experience and learn more about it, or for the kids who love camping! These trips will be located at Little River State Park in Waterbury and is run by our Recreation Director and veteran rec staff. Each gender will have gender-specific staff with them and a lean-to (shelter with an open front) so tents are not needed- just bring a sleeping bag and a change of clothes! We'll provide s'mores, hot dogs & popcorn for the night and breakfast in the morning! Come join us for campfire stories, an informational session from a park ranger about camping safety, and more! Pre-registration is required. Max registration per gender is 6. Drop-off at Little River State Park is 6:00pm and pick-up is 10:00am.

The Incredible Wall-Hugging Mouse Robot!

Date(s): July 29th - August 2nd

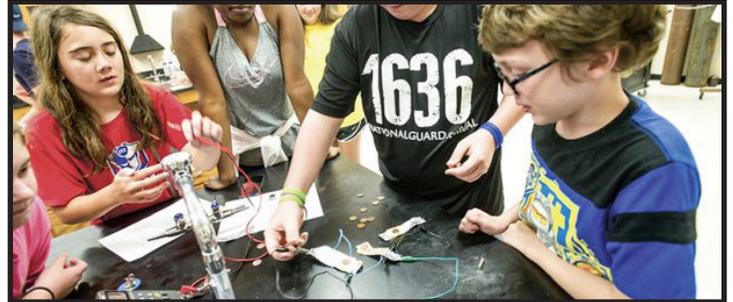

Instructor: Sciensational Staff

Location: Crossett Brook Middle School

Grades: 1-7

Times: 9:00am - 12:00pm

Cost: $150 Resident, $175 Non-Resident

Wow! Join Sciensational Workshops and build your own wall hugging mouse robot which you can take home!! When the bump sensor makes contact with the wall, a switch motor directs power to the left motor. This simple behavior allows this incredible mouse to follow any vertical surface on the left. You will see all of this amazing action after building your own! Your mouse can be decorated with eyes, ears, and whisker stickers- or create and draw your own! Learning through the inquiry method and STEAM based principles, you will also build other robots working in smaller groups. Build a sumo wrestler, have tug of war events, and make the robots perform creative things for your group. Robots in this portion of the workshop are not taken home.
